Arab Alliance for Freedom and Democracy (AAFD)

The Arab Alliance for Freedom and Democracy is comprised of Arab liberal parties and activists in the Arab world. The AAFD is committed to the principles of freedom, responsibility, pluralism, tolerance, market economy, civil state and separation of religion from state affairs. The AAFD helps its member parties to promote liberal reforms for a life in peace and prosperity in the Arab world.

The Arab Alliance for Freedom and Democracy supports its members to achieve more democracy, and free and fair elections to overcome authoritarian corrupt behaviour and practices and give the power to the people in the Arab world to participate actively in politics. The AAFD knows that true democratic behaviour and rule of law will fend off the danger of extremism and repressive regimes in our region.

The Arab Alliance for Freedom and Democracy supports its members to fight for private and public freedom. individual freedom. The AAFD wants that all citizens of the countries of the Arab world can live without any discrimination and repression regardless of race, ethnicity and religion.

The Arab Alliance for Freedom and Democracy supports its members to promote market economy and competitive abilities of the Arab world vis a vis the current and future challenges. The network also promotes the inclusion of the economies of Arab countries within world economy, to enable these economies to achieve prosperity and the fairest distribution of national wealth.

The AAFD members are upright, brave, dedicated, credible and experienced in all forms of reform in the countries of the Arab world.

With its international ties the AAFD is an important factor for defending the Arab world interests in the international community to overcome the unfair double standard oriented behaviour of some international powers.

The AAFD invites all liberal parties, institutions and personalities who believe in liberal values and have the conviction to political reform to join or support the AAFD to bring peace, freedom, democracy and prosperity to our Arab world.
